The Ashen Bell

A compact guided adventure showing one session connected to canonical campaign records.

GUIDED ADVENTURE CODEX

At Briar Watch, a bell buried beneath an abandoned road rings without sound. The party must choose whether to wake the wardens who once silenced it.

QUESTS / 1	NPCS / 1	LOCATIONS / 1	FACTIONS / 1
ENCOUNTERS / 1	LORE / 1

Teaching fiction only. The session links to one quest, NPC, location, faction consequence, and encounter through reference nodes; canonical records export once.

DATE / CAMPAIGN TIME

Late harvest / dusk to first watch

RECAP

The Lantern Company follows a route visible only where moss grows across old mile stones.

OPENING SITUATION

Briar Watch stands empty. A vibration moves through every metal object, though no sound is heard.

LIKELY BEATS / PRESSURE

Meet Iora at the sealed gate. Read the vanished route.
Descend into the bell vault. Choose who controls the ward.

DECISIONS MADE

The party shares the map with Iora but withholds Orin's ability to retune the bell.

FACTION / WORLD CONSEQUENCE

Greenwardens lose authority if the party opens the route; gain leverage if given the bell intact.

OUTCOME

The bell is damped, not destroyed. One buried mile of road wakes beyond Briar Watch.

NEXT SESSION THREADS

Ask who walked the waking road. Update Greenwarden reputation. Mark the northern mile as unstable.

ACTIVE / clock 2 of 4

PATRON / SOURCE

Iora Vale, Greenwarden outrider

OBJECTIVE

Reach the bell vault and stop its ward from waking the buried road uncontrolled.

STAKES

Briar Watch may collapse; travelers may return altered; the Greenwardens may seize the route.

CLUES / LEADS

Moss follows erased milestones. Iron vibrates near true doors. The ward responds to remembered names.

OBSTACLES

Collapsed switchback, divided Greenwarden orders, echo sentinels in the vault.

PROGRESS / CLOCK EVENTS

Gate opened / route read / vault entered / final tuning unresolved.

OUTCOME

Bell damped; one mile wakes; authority over the route remains contested.

NOTES

Advance the clock when the party forces passage or leaves a ward unanswered.

Careful courtesy; stands where every exit remains visible.

DESIRE

Keep Briar Watch stable without handing the bell to her superiors.

LEVERAGE / OFFER

Knows the gate oath and can delay the Greenwarden recovery party.

VOICE / MANNER

Names costs before requests. Never calls the buried route a road.

RELATIONSHIPS / STANDING

Former route apprentice beside Tamsin; unresolved trust after the maps were burned.

SECRETS / PRESSURE

Iora rang the bell once as a child and remembers a traveler returning from nowhere.

CHANGES AND NOTES

If respected, she accepts shared stewardship. If cornered, she signals the faction.
